IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES

Disclosure: Fund assets are as of March 31, 2023. The Gross Expense Ratio is the annual cost of running the fund represented as a percentage of total fund assets. The Net Expense Ratio is the total annual fund operating expenses before the Adviser's fee waiver/reimbursement. The Expense Ratio After Waiver is the amount of expense investors actually pay after the Adviser has applied the Expense Cap Limitation of 1.35%.

*The Adviser has contractually agreed to waive its management fee and/or reimburse expenses so that total annual operating expenses (excluding interest, taxes, brokerage fees and commissions, other extraordinary expenses not incurred in the ordinary course of the Fund's business, dividend expenses on short sales, and indirect expenses such as acquired fund fees and expenses) do not exceed 1.35% of the Funds' average daily net asset value through December 31, 2023.

The universe of acceptable investments for the Fund may be limited as compared to other funds due to the Fund's ESG investment screening. Because the Fund may not invest in companies that do not meet its ESG criteria, and the Fund may sell portfolio companies that subsequently violate its screens, the Fund may be riskier than other mutual funds that invest in a broader array of securities.

The value of some mortgage-backed securities may be particularly sensitive to changes in prevailing interest rates, and although the securities are generally supported by some form of government or private insurance, there is no assurance that private guarantors or insurers will meet their obligation. Bonds are affected by a number of risks, including fluctuation in interest rates, credit risks, and prepayment risk. In general, as prevailing interest rates rise, fixed income securities prices will fall. The value of securities in companies involved in a special situation can perform differently from the market as a whole. Many corporate events do not go as planned. This can ultimately reduce the price of a company's stock and cause an event-driven investor to lose money.

The Morningstar Moderate Target Risk Index measures 60% in global equity exposure. Indexes above cannot be purchased and the volatility that an investor experiences may differ from that of an Index.
